Grand Knights Report

Happy Fall to my Brother Knights and our families. With a whirlwind change to our weather recently, we have the colors and smells of a happy autumn.

We have had a wonderful September filled with service and charity thanks for the support to Soldiers Angels Food distribution, Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the collection of items for Saint Vincent de Paul. Thank you, Brothers Jim DeMaestri, Dennis Murray and Bob Walz for truly being influential in our community and Council!

Before I describe all the wonderful and fun activities we have planned for the next couple of months, I want to bring your attention to the October 13 meeting. We are planning an Exemplification for new members and could truly use your attention on this. Please forward to me or our membership committee the names that you are bringing forth to join our Council. Please know that we trust your recommendations and would like to bring in these candidates as we launch a full schedule of events. We have a wonderful Brotherhood based on our faith, our desire to help others in our community and the fellowship we share with each other. How appropriate it is to want to share our Unity with more new men. Please email me at lograsso@comcast.net with the names of the candidates you're recommending.

Of particular focus: Please read the detailed schedule on the next page and in the KL to see what's up and coming. There are many opportunities for community service, social events, and fundraising. Pro-life March at St. Lawrence, Square Dance, Men's Mass at the picnic grounds, and the return of our Council breakfast on October 30 with costume contest. We start our Christmas raffle at the breakfast as well with some exciting prizes – stay tuned! Help is also needed for the October Texas Holdem' Fundraiser. We have available this month two raffles: Michigan/Michigan State Football Squares and the Ultrasound Initiative Raffle based on the Michigan Daily 3 Lotto. Coming November 18, the always popular Trivia Night returns and we now have tickets on sale. Please contact Rick Similuk (rlsimiluk@comcast.net), Kris Weingartz (weingartz@comcast.net) or Joe Lograsso.

We will hold a social event the morning of October 8 at the Picnic Grounds. As we are cooking on the grill for the Square Dance, in the morning we will be hosting some food and beverages for those that want to stop by. The raffle tickets and trivia night tickets will be available to purchase as well as having some fun with balsa wood airplanes for your children or grandchildren. They can build and fly these with a distance competition and prizes.

Reminder: Our next meeting is October 13, 2022. We are planning an Exemplification that night, therefore we will not have the Rosary. Please come out in large numbers to show the strength of our Council and to welcome the candidates!

In closing, I hope to see many of you at the Celebration of Life March on October 9. If you find this to be a difficult and perplexing topic, you can please pray for the Holy Spirit to guide expectant mothers in what can be a traumatic and difficult scenario. Like so many aspects of our Christianity, we need to get involved at personal level and help guide people with love and patience. At the same time, the March itself provides visibility to a world that is so conflicted. Put your trust in Christ and please plan on attending.

Laura and I hope to see you at many of upcoming Council activities!

Thanks,
Joe Lograsso, Grand Knight

October Feast Days

His role as a spiritual leader expanded as he pursued his mission. He founded three Catholic orders, including the Franciscan Order named after him. He gathered followers as he rebuilt churches, helped the poor and declared the sanctity of all life. The principle of sanctity for all of god's creations, whether human, animate or inanimate, is the source of his reputation as a lover of nature. He believed that since God had created all, then all were kin. His meaning was clear in his "Canticle for the Sun" (or Canticle for the Creatures, as it is also known): which reads in part:

"Praised be you, my Lord, with all Your creatures, especially Sir Brother Sun, who is the day and through whom You give us light, and he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor; and bears a likeness of You, Most High One.

Praised by You, My Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars, in heaven You formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised by You, my Lord, through Brother Wind, and through the air, cloudy and serene, and every kind of weather through whom You give sustenance to Your creatures.

Praised by You, my Lord, through Sister Water, who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.

Praised by You, my Lord, through Brother Fire, through whom You light the night, and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong.

Praised by You, my Lord, through our Sister Mother Earth, who sustains and governs us, and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs.

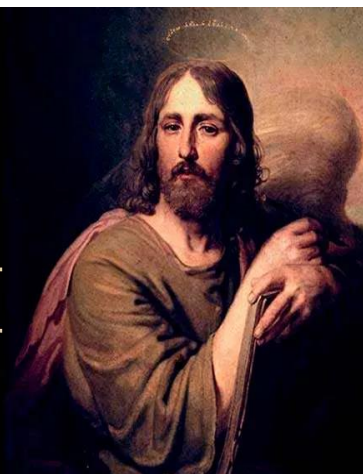

In Catholic tradition, the entire month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. This month-long observance is largely due to the liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, celebrated on October 7.

According to legend, Mary entrusted the Rosary to St. Dominic in the 13th century to aid in conflicts with the Albigensians. Later, the Dominican pope St. Pius V extended the popularity of the Rosary by introducing the feast day in 1571. Toward the end of the 19th century Pope Leo XIII promoted the practice of dedicating the entire month of October to the Rosary.

ST. LUKE THE EVANGELIST

October 18th

PRAYER TO ST. LUKE

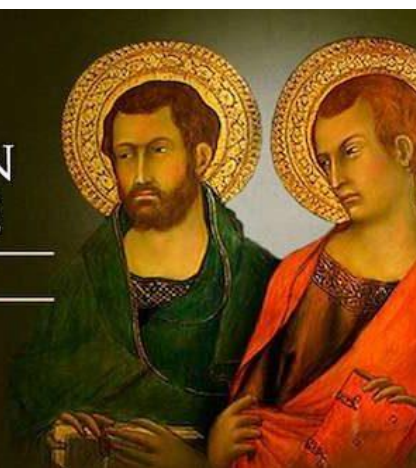

O St. Luke, you were chosen to reveal in preaching and writing God's love for the poor. Moved by the heavenly Spirit of Love, you detailed the life of Jesus, showing His divinity and His genuine compassion for all human beings.

Help those who already glory in God's name to persevere in one heart and one mind, and inspire all people that they may hear the Good News of Salvation. Amen.

STS. SIMON AND JUDE

APOSTLES

October 28th

PRAYER FOR THE FEAST OF SAINT SIMON AND SAINT JUDE APOSTLES AND MARTYRS

O God, Who, through Thy blessed Apostles Simon and Jude, hast brought us to the knowledge of Thy name, grant that we may celebrate their everlasting glory by advancing in good works, and that we may advance in good works by celebrating their glory.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, one God, world without end.

Amen

Growing with the Holy Spirit

Scripture is dry, No fruits of the Spirit, no power, no opportunities of mission, and a lack of boldness.

If any of that is present in your life, it means probably the Holy Spirit is lying dormant. So, what do you do about it? You ask for more. You open yourself up. You lean back into the graces of your baptism and confirmation. You say, "Come Holy Spirit. Renew my heart, pour out Your grace upon me. I'm not putting You in a box. I'm not limiting Your power. I'm not only asking for the things that make me comfortable or the gifts that kind of work with my personality." You know how prideful it is to look at God and say, "I will take some of Your gifts but some of the gifts make me uncomfortable." No. When the Lord is giving out gifts, we should get in line twice. We should be in a posture of saying, "Whatever You have for me, I want it. Whatever You have for me, I need it. Lord, pour out Your Spirit upon me, unleash in me the power of Your Holy Spirit, that I might live a transformed life. That I may know You, that I may serve You, that I may be growing holiness and go out and seek and save the lost."

Come, Holy Spirit, renew Your church. Come, Holy Spirit, renew my heart. Come, Holy Spirit with Your fire.

Heavenly Father, Lord of the Harvest,
Call forth vocations to the priesthood
From our archdiocese and families.

Jesus, Eternal High Priest,
Give us men willing to sacrifice and serve.
Make their hearts after your own Sacred Heart.

Holy Spirit, Everlasting Love between the Father and Son,
Strengthen, inspire and set men on fire with divine charity
Grant them the courage to say yes to their vocation.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, Mother of priests,
Comfort and protect your sons as they discern their call.
With St. Joseph, may we know your love and companionship
As they deepen their relationship with Jesus.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us
St. Anne, pray for us.
St. John Vianney, patron saint of priests, pray for us.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

God, Our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called on your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue may we follow your Son, his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen."

St. Lawrence Adoration Chapel

The St. Lawrence Adoration Chapel is now open Monday through Friday 6am-7pm. Our Brother Knights donated much of their time, talent, and treasure in renovating this room as an adoration space to honor Christ's true presence in the Eucharist as the summit of our faith. Father Roman commissioned the beautiful sculpture and monstrance containing the Blessed Sacrament.

Help Needed!!

We have moved to a new poker room. Our next event is scheduled for October 20-23, 2022 (Thursday through Sunday.) The times have also changed, we now are open from 6:30 PM till 2 AM. One Eyed Jacks is located in the shopping center on the Southeast corner of 22 Mile and VanDyke.

Contact Don Heydens at dheydens@gmail.com or call 586-419-3420 to help work this event.

Notice!!

We currently have an open position in our Council for the Office of Advocate (see description below). If you are interested in this position, please contact the Grand Knight, Joe Lograsso.

ADVOCATE

The advocate is the parliamentarian for the council. He need not be a member of the legal profession; however, he should be thoroughly familiar with all of the laws of the Order as stated in the "Charter, Constitution and Laws" and with the council by-laws. When a by-law is to be revised, the advocate serves as chairman of the revision committee. The advocate should also have a working knowledge of "Robert's Rules of Order," and the Supreme Council flyer, "Methods of Conducting a Council Meeting". An understanding of both of these will help keep meetings on track. When needed, the advocate shall seek legal assistance from the state advocate. In matters of trial of council members, the advocate shall prosecute the charges on behalf of the council.

2022 Children's Christmas Party

We need your input!! The fun and annual Christmas party for Council children and grandchildren has had low attendance the last couple of years, primarily due to the pandemic. This event is a great time to celebrate Christmas with each other. It takes time from a number of Brothers and money from the Council to put this on. We want to make sure we have a good turnout as the effects of the pandemic has substantially subsided.

Please sign up for the party at the following link and include the number of people that will attend. We appreciate you doing this as it will help to ensure we continue this great Council tradition. Sign up at <https://bit.ly/Dec18Christmas>
