FROM THE GRAND KNIGHT

Vivat Jesus

Dear Brother Knights:

November promises to be a busy month for our Council. First, I am pleased to announce that Fr. Roman Pasieczny, pastor of St. Lawrence Parish, as agreed to be our new Chaplin. Fr. Roman will be formally installed by our District Deputy at an upcoming meeting. Fr. Roman has been a great supporter of our Council and our monthly breakfasts. I look forward to working with him. Please join me in welcoming Fr. Roman to our Council.

Our Annual K of C Memorial Mass will be held on Thursday, November 13th at 7:00 pm with a reception to follow. Fr. Roman will be the celebrant. Please plan to attend this Mass to show your support for the families of our deceased Brothers.

This month, our Council will receive a traveling icon of the Immaculate Conception as part of a K of C sponsored prayer program. This icon is an image of Mary as the Immaculate Conception, which is a copy of the original painting housed in the Cathedral Basilica Notre-Dame de Quebec in Canada. The icon will be present at our memorial Mass.

The icon will be displayed at St. Lawrence Church during the weekend of November 16th. The Knights will make a formal presentation of the icon at the 8:00 am Mass on Sunday, November 16th, hopefully with the participation of the St. John Neumann Color Corps. This is a great opportunity to raise awareness within St. Lawrence Parish of the Knights of Columbus and our faithful work in support of the Catholic Church. I hope that you can attend.

On Saturday, November 29th at 2:30 pm, our Council is sponsoring a Chili Cook-off fundraiser, with a portion of the proceeds to benefit the family of our recently departed Brother, Jeff Wright. Please contact our chairman Anthony Quagliato for tickets and further contest details at (734) 646-6468 or anthonyquagliato67@gmail.com

Our Council is also sponsoring a Coat Drive, chaired by John Ternes. Please bring gently used, clean coats to a meeting or to the Children's Christmas Party December 21st so they can be delivered to those in need.

I'd like to acknowledge the many great activities and events sponsored by our Council in the last Month:

- Corporate Communion
Thanks to all who attended and thank you to the John Neumann Color Corps for leading the procession

- Fall Casino Bus Trip
Thanks to JoAnn Wiegand for organizing another successful fundraiser
- OctoBEER Fest
Thank you to Joe Lograsso, Ted Ross and Dave Utykanski for chairing this event. Thanks to Paul Burmeister and the other cooks, and everyone who set-up, cleaned, attended and brought guests.
- Rosaries for our Deceased Brothers
Thank you to everyone who turned out for the rosaries we held last month. I know that your participation is greatly appreciated by the families.
- Halloween Party
Thanks to Joe for chairing this event and to the Brisket Bunch for cooking. This was a great party, although lightly attended. I'd like to see more attendance from our membership.
- Recruitment Drive
Thank you to Jim Bokshan for his leadership and everyone who helped make this drive a success.
- First Degree
Congratulations to our new Knights and thank you to our Degree Team for our excellent work
- Past Grand Knights Ball
Thank you to DGK Steve Salter for chairing this event

Please see the calendar for more events and activities.

I hope all of you will take the opportunity this month to vote in a manner consistent with our Catholic values. I wish you and your families a great Thanksgiving Holiday. Let's thank God for his many Blessings and pray for those in need.

Fraternally,
Jason Meyers

POLL: SUCCESS LINKED TO ETHICS

A poll of Americans and high-level business leaders proved what Knights of Columbus Insurance agents have known for generations: religious beliefs and values should be an integral guide to business decision making.

Those surveyed also revealed they believe personal and corporate gain drives executives' decisions. Overall, they believe, as do the majority of the executives polled, that the moral compass of corporate America points in the wrong direction.

Only 19 percent of Americans would award corporate America a grade of A or B for its honesty and ethical conduct. Forty percent of these respondents had the banking and financial industry in mind when answering.

The positive side is that 75 percent of Americans surveyed believe that it is possible to be successful and ethical in business. They also believe that high ethical standards strengthen a company's advantage over its competitors, in both the short- and long-term.

Additionally, more than 90 percent of people strongly consider a company's reputation for honesty and ethical conduct when considering whether or not to invest with them.

Nearly two-thirds of those polled believe corporate leaders should rely on their religious values for guidance in the business arena.

In this tough economic climate, it's of paramount importance that all Knights are reminded of the moral, ethical commitment of the Order to serve its members and their families. Earning just a passing grade is not acceptable to me or the other professional insurance agents of the Knights of Columbus.

Building the Domestic Church: The Family Fully Alive

St. Lawrence Knights of Columbus

November 2014

Monthly Theme: Because God rested on the seventh Day, we want to Celebrate Sunday as a family

Reflection: In the Gospel we do not find discourses on the family but an event which is worth more than any words: God wanted to be born and to grow up in a human family. In this way he consecrated the family as the first and ordinary means of his encounter with humanity.

In his life spent at Nazareth, Jesus honored the Virgin Mary and the righteous Joseph, remaining under their authority throughout the period of his childhood and his adolescence. In this way he shed light on the primary value of the family in the education of the person.

Jesus was introduced by Mary and Joseph into the religious community and frequented the synagogue of Nazareth. With them, he learned to make the pilgrimage to Jerusalem, as the Gospel passage offered for our meditation by today's liturgy tells us.

When he was 12 years old, he stayed behind in the Temple and it took his parents all of three days to find him. With this act he made them understand that he "had to see to his Father's affairs," in other words, to the mission that God had entrusted to him.

This Gospel episode reveals the most authentic and profound vocation of the family: that is, to accompany each of its members on the path of the discovery of God and of the plan that he has prepared for him or her.

Mary and Joseph taught Jesus primarily by their example: in his parents he came to know the full beauty of faith, of love for God and for his Law, as well as the demands of justice, which is totally fulfilled in love. From them he learned that it is necessary first of all to do God's will, and that the spiritual bond is worth more than the bond of kinship.

The Holy Family of Nazareth is truly the "prototype" of every Christian family which, united in the sacrament of marriage and nourished by the Word and the Eucharist, is called to carry out the wonderful vocations and mission of being the living cell not only of society but also of the Church, a sign and instrument of unity for the entire human race.

Let us now invoke for every family, especially families in difficulty, the protection of Mary Most Holy and of St. Joseph. May they sustain such families so that they can resist the disintegrating forces of a certain contemporary culture which undermines the very foundations of the family institution.

May they help Christian families to be, in every part of the world, living images of God's love.

Pope Benedict XVI
Angelus Address, Dec. 21, 2006

1. What does it mean to me to see the rest of the family pray or attend Mass with me?
2. Why might God want me to be a part of this particular family, giving me these people to love and care for?
3. What is one thing about Mary or Joseph that I admire?
4. How can I allow others to help me discover God's plan for me? How can I encourage others to be open to God's plan for them?

Family Project

Sunday is the Day of the Lord (Dies Domini) in which we remember and give thanks for the work of creation, his gift of the Holy Spirit, and the joy of our faith. All this happens to the family, and so Sunday is also the Day of the Family. Celebrating as a family the sacredness of this holy day each week strengthens us in our vocation to holiness. Sunday is a special day, the day of the Resurrection and the day of Christians. Each Sunday, Easter returns and we celebrate Christ's victory over sin and death. Sharing a special meal as a family is one way to celebrate together an honor this day.

Have each family member help make the meal special by:

- Preparing a tasty dessert
- Using a special tablecloth and good dishes
- Lighting candles
- Composing a toast to share

Also, consider planning a Sunday trip to visit an adoration chapel in a nearby parish and spend time together as a family adoring God, truly present to us in the Eucharist.
